THE ROAD TO HEALTH. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISONDERED LIVER AND BAL DIGESTION.—topy of a letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, chemist, 7 Present street, Liverpool, dated h June, 1551: To Projessor Holloway-Sin: Your Pills and Ointmer have stood the highest on our sale list of Propitelary Medicines for some years. A customer, low whom I can refer for any haquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered here and bad aligestion. On the last occussion, however, the virulence of the attaca was a calarming, and the irllumination set in so severely, that idouble were entertained of her not being to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pitts, and she informs me list after the first and each succeeding dose she had great renef. She continued to take them, and sithing she used only three hoxes, she now in the enlayment of perfect health. I cluid have sent you many more cases, but the above, from the exectify of the attack, and the speedy cure, I thick, speaks much in favor of your astomshing Pills (signed)
